BACKGROUND AND PRESENTATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad - who got its name from the great Romanian engineering, inventor and pioneer of the aviation, Aurel Vlaicu - is an accredited higher education public institution, continuing the tradition of university education in the Arad area which started with the: Theology Institute (1822), the Livestock and Veterinary Medicine Faculty (1947), the Engineering Institute (1972).

The „Aurel Vlaicu” University came into being following decision nr. 567/1990 issued by the Romanian Government, under the name of „Higher education Institute” and having one faculty the Faculty of Engineering, with the following profiles and specializations: Mechanics (technology of machine building; equipment and technology of welding; rolling equipment for railway); Textiles-leather (spinning and weaving; knitwear and ready-made clothes); Chemistry (chemical finishing of textiles); Food Technology (food technology). In 1991, following Order no. 4894/ 1991 of the Ministry of National Education, the new denomination of the institution has become „Aurel Vlaicu” University.

Beginning with the academic year 1991-1992, the University diversified its educational offer with a new faculty the Faculty of Theology and in 1993 the Faculty of Engineering changed its name in the Faculty of Engineering and Economic Studies as two economic specializations have started their activity: Finance -Insurance and financing control and accounting expertise. In 1999 the faculty re-organized in two faculties: the Faculty of Engineering and the Faculty of Economic Sciences. In 2002 Faculty of Food Engineering, Tourism and Environmental protection was established.

THE ROMANIAN LANGUAGE PREPARATORY YEAR

This language course is meant for foreign students who wish to study in the Romanian language (bachelor, master or PhD programme) and do not have a language proficiency certificate in this respect.

The aim of the Preparatory Year language course is to develop foreign students' skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking in Romanian for academic purposes. During this course students acquire general knowledge of Romanian language as well and specific terminology and knowledge related to the following fields of study: mathematics and natural sciences, engineering, social sciences, humanities and arts, sports and physical education, biological and biomedical sciences.

By the end of the course, students will reach level B2 of the Common European Framework.

Foreign citizens who speak the Romanian language, but do not have a language proficiency certificate to prove that, must pass an exam in order to obtain the Romanian language proficiency certificate. Only after passing the exam, will they be accepted in the first year of study.

Foreign citizens with documents proving that they have followed at least 4 years of study in Romanian or undergraduate studies conducted in Romanian language, will not have to enroll for the Preparatory Year or pass the mentioned exam.

THE FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

The Faculty of Engineering was setup in 1990, together with the University, as the successor of the Engineering Institute which has been functioning since 1972.

The Faculty of Engineering comprises six long-term specializations and four master programs. All specializations have been authorized and accredited by the National Council for Academic Assessment and Accreditation. All specializations have daily courses lasting four years.

Aims of the degrees are to furnish specialists with skills and knowledge of scientific nature, to enable them to face the different demands of modern equipment and new technologies.

The educational process and the scientific research activities take place in 2 buildings having modern laboratories such as: laboratory for Computer aided Engineering, laboratory for Material Endurance, laboratory for Artificial Intelligence, Microsystems laboratory, laboratory for Industrial Informatics, laboratory for Car Maintenance and laboratories for Textile Technologies.

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences began its activity in 2003, having at that time five long-term specializations: Romanian-English, Special Psycho-Pedagogy, Social Work, Public Administration, and Journalism. Since the academic year 2005/2006, the specializations Social Work and Special Psycho-Pedagogy have been moved to the Faculty of Educational Sciences.

Beginning with the academic year 2006/2007, the Faculty introduced a new specialization: History, Didactical Pentecostal Theology, and Community Police. All of these specializations have been authorized and accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation.

Currently, the faculty offers five bachelor's programs: Romanian Language and Literature - English Language and Literature, Public Administration, Journalism, Music, Musical Performance - Voice, and Pentecostal Theology - Teaching.

The Faculty offers three-year daily courses, with the exception of Musical Performance - Voice, which lasts four years. At the end of their studies, the graduates take an exam and earn a Bachelor's degree in the specialization they have attended.

At the end of the study period the students obtain a Bachelor Degree and they can attend different Master Programmes.

Another program offered by the faculty is continuing training for teachers from primary school and preschool, which is finalized with an exam and a certificate recognized by the Ministry of Education and Research. The theoretical courses of the faculty are complemented by many practical didactic stages in schools and kindergartens, in special education institutions, foster homes, asylums, prisons, etc. In this context, the students have the opportunity to acquire (along with their theoretical background) the practical experience needed in the labour market.

THE FACULTY OF EDUCATIONAL SCIENCES, PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK

The Faculty of Educational Sciences, Psychology and Social Work was established in 2005 on the background of the former University College for Teacher Training (set up in 1998). The faculty provides four main specializations: Psychology; The Pedagogy of Primary and Preschool Education (within this specialization, future educators for preschool and primary school are trained); Special Psycho-Pedagogy (the specialization for professionals in the special education system focused on children with special needs, with a strong emphasis on inclusive education); The Social Work specialization (which covers a constant demand in the social field for qualified professionals working with disadvantaged social groups).

THE FACULTY OF ECONOMIC SCIENCES

The Faculty of Economic Sciences within the „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad, located at 10 Paul Chinezul Street, was established in 1999. However, economic specializations have existed since 1993 within the Faculty of Engineering and Economic Sciences.

The institution’s main objectives and goals are: preparing economists with university-level education at a European standard for various economic fields and teaching purposes; training specialists with high adaptability and professional mobility; promoting progress and social modernization; conducting scientific and research activities involving teaching staff, students, and partners from industry and society; and developing scientific and academic relationships with similar faculties in Romania and abroad.

For the undergraduate cycle, the institution offers four specializations accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation. These specializations can be pursued either through regular attendance or part-time study over three years.

The Faculty of Economic Sciences offers six master’s programs for those interested.

THE FACULTY OF ORTHODOX THEOLOGY

In 1998, the faculty was accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation. Starting with the academic year 2001-2002, the faculty has offered open distance learning courses for monks, priests, and theological college graduates.

The students and teaching staff have access to over 4.000 volumes of theological documentation in the faculty's library and more than 26.000 theological volumes in the library of the Bishopric of Arad.

The Faculty of Orthodox Theology functions within the „Aurel Vlaicu” University since 1991, when, after four decades of interruption, the tradition of theological education has been reestablished, as the theological education in Arad had been functioning uninterrupted from 1822 to 1948.

The Theological Institute of Arad was established during the Enlightenment cultural reform initiated by the Habsburg Empire.

In 1822, the foundation of clerical schools in Arad, Timișoara, and Vršac was decided. From 1825, the institute in Arad became the Theological Academy, which functioned until 1948, when it was abusively closed by the communist regime.

The Faculty of Theology offers students a four-year undergraduate program and two master's programs.

CAREER COUNSELING AND GUIDANCE CENTER

The mission of CCOC is to support every student and graduate of Aurel Vlaicu University in exploring their own potential. The center offers a diverse range of services, all adapted to the varied needs of students:

✓ Career Counseling: Each student has access to individual or group sessions, where they can discover hidden talents, professional interests and values that define their future.

✓ Educational Counseling: Choosing a suitable study program or educational path is easier with the support of our experts.

✓ Psychological Counseling: We offer emotional support for managing stress, anxiety or other challenges that may arise during personal and academic development.

✓ Workshops: Developing essential skills, such as communication, leadership and time management, through interactive and practical activities.

✓ Career Fairs and Networking Sessions: We organize events that connect students with employers, giving them the opportunity to interact directly with potential partners and future colleagues.

CCOC collaborates with numerous local, regional and national institutions and companies. Through these partnerships, students have access to internships, special projects and other development opportunities that contribute to their rapid integration into the labor market. The projects are designed to optimize the connection between higher education and the professional environment. Each initiative is designed to give students a competitive advantage in the labor market, in a constantly changing economic environment.

LEISURE POSSIBILITIES

Arad is a city that blends history and modernity, offering a unique charm through its distinctive architecture and its harmonious connection with the Mureș River. This balance between urban life and nature is highlighted by landmarks such as the Arad Fortress, the scenic Embankment, the riverside beach, as well as the Lower Mureș Meadow nature reserve, which stretches all the way to the Hungarian border.

Arad also serves as a gateway to exploring extensive, connected regions, making it an ideal starting point for trips to:

- 🕒 Medieval fortresses and castles;
- 🕒 Monasteries, churches, and historical sites;
- 🕒 Museums along the Mureș and White Criș Valleys;
- 🕒 Renowned regional vineyards;
- 🕒 Popular resorts like Moneasa and Lipova.

Arad County, historically recognized for its strategic location as a cultural bridge between Romania and Western Europe, lies in a region rich in vineyards along the looping Mureș River, which encircles the 18th-century Arad Fortress.

Cultural and Historical Highlights:

- 🕒 Medieval towns: Șiria, Șoimoș, Dezna (13th century); Ineu Fortress (17th century, currently under restoration);
- 🕒 Castles and manors in the Mureș Valley: Royal Castle in Săvârșin, Odvoș, Căpâlnaș, Bulci, Conop;
- 🕒 Turkish Bazaar in Lipova – built in 1672.

Other Tourist Attractions in Arad County:

- 🕒 Purgly Castle in Șofronea;
- 🕒 Ghioroc Lake and beach;
- 🕒 Lavender Field (Lavandair) in Mailat;
- 🕒 Gai Monastery & Hodoș-Bodrog Monastery;
- 🕒 Lipova Baths;
- 🕒 Bezdin Monastery in Secusigiu;
- 🕒 Ioan Slavici Memorial House;
- 🕒 Feredeul Orthodox Monastery;
- 🕒 Saint Mary Radna Catholic Monastery;
- 🕒 The historic center of Arad.

With its wealth of natural beauty and cultural heritage, Arad offers students and visitors a wide array of leisure activities and exploration opportunities.

CULTURAL LIFE

For students enrolled at „Aurel Vlaicu” University, the city of Arad provides a vibrant cultural scene and diverse entertainment options, making it an exciting academic hub. Known as the „city of palaces,” Arad is celebrated for its remarkable architecture showcasing styles from the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. Its historic buildings, theaters, monuments, art galleries, and places of worship have earned the city the nickname „Small Vienna,” a reputation it has held for over a century.

Cultural Institutions:

The Administrative Palace of Arad – this impressive palace located right in the heart of Arad. is a building constructed between 1872 and 1875, which today houses the Arad City Hall. The building is one of the significant works of eclectic architecture in Arad. The symmetrical facades are structured and decorated with classicist elements, while the central projection of the main facade features rich Neo-Renaissance references.

Arad State Theatre – A significant cultural landmark, the Arad State Theatre is known for its diverse, high-quality productions ranging from classical dramas to contemporary plays. Its rich history dates back to 1817, contributing significantly to Arad's artistic heritage.

The Philharmonic of Arad – A prestigious institution dedicated to classical music, the Philharmonic regularly hosts concerts featuring Romanian and international artists. Performances take place in the city's Concert Hall, an essential cultural venue in the region.

Arad County Museum – This museum highlights the region's history through extensive collections in archaeology, ethnography, and fine arts. Visitors can explore exhibits that showcase the cultural development of Arad and its surrounding areas.

Museum of Contemporary Art – Featuring contemporary art exhibitions by Romanian and international artists, this museum appeals to art enthusiasts interested in Romania's evolving art landscape.

Arad Puppet Theatre – This theatre hosts performances catering to children and adults alike. It occasionally screens films and stages plays in Hungarian, serving Arad's Hungarian-speaking community and hosts national and international festivals.
